DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hennessey in view of Keeton. Hennessey teaches all the limitations of claim 15 except 1) a pet bed, comprising a pillow, and 2) means for compacting the pillow comprising a bag and a vacuum pump. Keeton teaches means for compacting a pillow 1, comprising a bag 3 and a pump (see column 2). It would have been obvious in view of Keeton to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the invention of Keeton in conjunction with that of Hennessey for the purpose of allowing items to be more securely and efficiently packaged in his carton. It is clear that Hennessey's carton could be used to package any number of items, including a compressed pet bed in the form of a pillow.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14 and 15 have been considered but are most in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
